

Ica.

Long Bio

Calgary-born and Toronto-based Ica., fuses together emotionally raw lyrics, stuck-in-your-head acoustic pop melodies, and powerhouse vocals to create folk-pop bliss. Her signature sound brings a vibe reminiscent of artists such as Paramore, Lizzy McAlpine, and Julia Michaels. Her no strings attached approach to songwriting and performance aims to air out life's bittersweet lessons.

Following the release of her heartbreak anthem "Best of Me" (recorded and produced with the expertise of musician and producer Miguel Abuel), Ica. has become inspired to give back to the community and learn how to further serve individuals through music. As a result, Ica. has been busy volunteering and giving back to the Toronto community with "Sing It Girls!", a program that aims to empower girls ages 7-15 to use their voices.

When not busy with her vocal studies at Humber College or volunteering, Ica. has continued to maintain a busy performance schedule in the local Toronto Music Scene and gradually build her audience one show at a time. Notable performances and stages Ica. has had the privilege of connecting with fans from are The Legendary Horseshoe Tavern, Sneaky Dee's, and Free Times Café, to name a few.

With over 5 years of performance experience in solo, duo, and band settings, Ica. has learned the importance of community, transparency, and sincerity in music and performance. She crafts and shares her songs on digital and in-person platforms in hopes of connecting and creating community through shared experiences.

Currently Ica. is writing new music for release in late 2023 and working to further develop her artistic identity through songwriting and live performance.

"Music is more than melodies, chords, and lyrics. Music is feeling, emotions, expression, and creation. It's a language and energy that has the power to heal transform lives, and bring people together for a cause greater than themselves. Music saves us and defines our humanity. Music is the language of the soul." - Ica.

"Watching Ica. perform live on stage is such a pleasure. Ica.'s delivery of each song paints a vivid picture of stories of love, loss, and life lessons" - Lea Chelsea, Long-time fan
